This 'Newsletter' is designed to give you key updates, celebrate your success and signpost you to any support you might need.

I very much hope that you and your family are all well and that you have had a healthy and happy Easter holiday! Although we are not physically in the same building at the moment are wishes for you remain the same. We want to support you in all areas and ensure that you continue to develop in all areas of our 'Vision and Ethos'.

TEIGN SCHOOL

VISION AND ETHOS
Pride through success

A love for learning

Ready for the world

Centre of the community

Celebrate achievement for all

Your 'Best' mind-set

Support each other

Developing the whole person, ensuring everyone has the opportunities to access the best universities and career destinations

I will be in touch with different Tutor groups and students regularly to request, specific contributions to your Newsletter. But it would also be great to receive anything positive, inspirational, practical, fun or funny which you think would help or inspire your peers in any way

Student Support

We have now set up a 'Student Support Page' where you can access lots of information on a range of areas including mental health and emotional wellbeing, useful websites, and safeguarding advice.

You can access it here

Timestable Rockstars Challenge

Destiny calls...since the dawn of time, and the creation of the one true language set to unite the peoples of the world, one question has plagued humankind. It can only be resolved by an epic battle, testing your mathematics skills to the very limit! We are calling for valiant warriors in year 7 to help us begin to answer that age old question..."Are girls or boys better at times tables?". You are fighting for the honour of your kind, who's with me? The battlefield is set: <https://trockstars.com/> and we begin duelling at 9am on Monday 20th April. Battle ceases on Friday 24th April at 3.20pm sharp. Who will win?? Join us!!
